Dear Sir:-

Our Society has issued two medals relating to the World War. One, to commemorate the entrance of the United States into the War, and the other, the signing of the Peace Treaty. Both of these however, are much too large for your purpose being nearly three inches in diameter. These are the only medals we have issued.

There are however, a great many smaller medals struck in relation to the War which you should have no difficulty in securing. Some very handsome ones of the size you want have been issued by the French Mint and are being offered for sale by many American Dealers.

Very truly yours,

Assistant to the Curator.
